Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 22 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Saturday, frosty start, wintry showers later.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers are likely for a time in the first half of the night, before clearing away east. Mostly dry with clear spells thereafter, allowing a widespread frost to form, and perhaps the odd freezing fog patch. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Saturday:
Cold start with a frost, and any freezing fog patches gradually lifting. Occasional wintry showers spreading southeast through the afternoon, before clear spells and a frost return later. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Generally cold, light winds and sunny intervals, also widespread overnight frost. Often dry but a spell of rain or snow, Sunday. Turning wet and windy from the west later Tuesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.